About the Foundation for Women's Rights Promotion and Development (FWRPD)

Executive Yuan's Commission on Women's Rights Promotion (CWRP) established the Foundation of Women's Rights Promotion and Development (FWRPD) and the Ministry of Interior allocated the NT$ 1 billion fund. It was hoped to serve as a bridge for constructive dialogue between the government and the private sectors, and to build a center of resource and information exchange for all women in Taiwan. The foundation is comprised of chiefs from ministries engaged in women's issues, women's rights specialists, and representatives from women's organizations. Its primary mission is to promote the implementation of women rights and gender mainstreaming. After the completion of Taiwan Women's Center in March 8th, 2008, the committee also started to accept affairs assigned by Ministry of Interiors.

We are dedicated to enhancing and developing women's rights and have been commissioned to carry out tasks such as the research of policies, laws and regulations relating to women's rights, to research and consult problems relating to women's rights, to promote public awareness of women rights, and to train personnel. Our goal is to develop a comprehensive women's policy.

Taiwan Women • An Incredible Century

隨著社會變遷與婦女人權的提升，臺灣女性從私領域到公領域，從小我到大我，都有不可忽視的卓越貢獻與成就。女性不但在各領域各行業中逐漸嶄露頭角，更勇於跳脫傳統框架，展現自信風采。

西元2011年，適逢中華民國建國100年。為讓世世代代能看到臺灣女人一路走來的耕耘與社會貢獻，特別以臺灣女人進程為題，整理記錄女性權益相關之民間發展、婦團運動、政府作為，以及女性人物群像、日常生活流變等事蹟，希望帶領大家走進歷史時光隧道，再現100年來，精彩女人的生命歷程，同時藉此回顧過去、立足現在、展望未來，為臺灣婦女權益發展留下美好的記錄。

As the society changes and with the advancement of women's human rights, Taiwan women have made extraordinary contributions and attained spectacular achievements in both the private and public spheres and at both personal and societal levels. Not only have Taiwan women started to play an increasingly important role in all fields, but they also have bravely gone beyond the boundary previously set by the traditional values to shine with radiant self-confidence.

In view of a century of progress, in 2007, the United Nations, in its worldwide assessment of the development of gender equality in a country, ranked Taiwan 22nd in its Gender-related Development Index (GDI) and 24th in its Gender Empowerment Measure (GEM), demonstrating the fact that both men and women in Taiwan can develop equally in education, health, economy and labor, and decision making. Taiwan has made in the promotion of women's rights and benefits and in the development of gender equality.

Year 2011 marks the 100th founding anniversary of the Republic of China. In order to educate the public about the endeavor undertaken and the contribution made by Taiwan women, the theme for this exhibition is "Taiwan Women's Progress." This exhibition documents the course of advancement of women's rights and benefits in the Taiwan society, the development of women's groups in Taiwan, and the governmental achievements made in the promotion of women's rights and benefits. Furthermore, this exhibition presents a compilation of distinguished Taiwan women and traces the lifestyle change Taiwan women have experienced. This exhibition takes you on a journey to travel down the time tunnel and back in time to revisit the splendid lives Taiwan women have lived in the past one hundred years—to reflect on the past, focus on the present, and envision the future—while preserving the excellent record attained in the promotion of Taiwan women's rights and benefits.
