簡介	In 1986, there was no national organization in Canada for people who wanted to advance gender equality. That year, two grade-school friends – Nancy Ruth and Susan Woods – started discussing what they could do about it. They wondered: What would it take to bring about gender equality in Canada? What would it take to stop family violence and violence against women? What would it take to move women out of poverty? What would it take for women and girls to fully embrace their power?

	Intrigued, women from the LEAF and YWCA networks attended. The group began to meet regularly and developed a concept for a new charitable foundation in Canada focused on women and girls. They invited women across the country to help shape the goals, values and grants of the proposed foundation. With support of our amazing supporters and donors, we are writing our next chapter. We invite you to learn more about the issues, get involved or donate.

With the objectives to provide the aid to children and women who faces the violence, harassment, and imposition, also, also the work of our foundation is another way to support the government as a good citizen, as well. I want to take this opportunity to make clear understanding that the mission of the Pavena Foundation for Children and Women will execute as if we are requested and petitioned to assist the victim. In case the official units take charge, then we will not involve for the situation. Correctly, our assistance will be as if we get the request for help for any cruelty – ravish in children, violence, harassment, illegal child labor, and so on. These cases, once we got the petition the next step is to invite the victim to our office to provide us with further information. So to prove the petition, we will send our special unit to investigate beforehand as if the appeal whether true or not. Possibly the case is well-grounded, we will cooperate to the police that the complainant submitted the notice and provided any support to assist the official office. Also, when we offer the aid to the children, we still have to follow up whether they can live with the family or not. As if the kid needs mental health rehabilitation or occupational training, so we will coordinate with the Ministry of Labor and Social Welfare. However, the justice process will be under the responsibility of the foundation until the end of the case.
